

Dieter Wilken
DLR,
Dipl.-Ing., Msc

German Aerospace Centre
Air Transport Research
D-51140 Köln

CURRICULUM VITAE

PERSONAL DATA

Date of Birth: January 21st, 1941
Place of Birth: Warendorf, Germany
Marital Status: Married, 3 children

STUDY DATA

Civil Engineering: 1961-1967, Technical Universities Aachen and München, Germany
Degree: Dipl.-Ing.
Transportation Engineering: 1967-1969, University of California, Berkeley, USA
Degree: Msc

PROFESSIONAL DATA

Traffic Research Engineer: 1968-1970, Victor Gruen and Associates, Los Angeles, USA;
Land Use - Transport Planning Research, Urban Transport Planning;
Member of Scientific Staff: 1970-1973, Battelle Research Institute, Frankfurt, Germany;
Prospective Studies of Interregional Passenger Transport, Transport Demand Modelling;
Principal Administrator: 1973-1976, OECD, Paris, France;
COST Action 33: The Future of European Passenger Transport;

Member of Scientific Staff (since 1976) and Head of Air Transport and Airport Research Division (1999 - 2006),

Air Transport and Airport Research,
German Aerospace Center (DLR), Köln, Germany

Participation in and Direction of:
Analytical and Prospective Studies in Air and Long Distance Passenger Transport; COST-Actions (i.e. Action 305: „Data System for the Study of Demand for Interregional Passenger Transport“ and Action 318: „Interactions between High Speed Rail and Air Passenger Transport“; EU-Projects (i.e. SCENARIOS, SCENES); ECAC-Projects (i.e. EURAFOR) and other international projects (i.e. EUROCONTROL, Cooperation with China Aerospace Establishment) Expert and Consulting Work for Ministries and Courts. Representation of DLR and the German Federal Ministry of Transport in International Organisations, i. e. ICAO-CAEP, ECAC and EUROCONTROL.

Consultant to the Air Transport and Airport Research Division of DLR
(since 2006)