To whom it may concern

Dear Sir or Madam,

With this mailing, we would like to inform you about the upcoming 8th European Aviation Conference (EAC), which will be held in Vienna on 7th and 8th November 2019. This year's topic is 'Pricing in Aviation: Issues and Innovations', taking a deeper look at topics like pricing of air tickets, air navigation services and airport services.

Key speakers, who have confirmed their participation include:

- Daniel Boeshertz, Head of Unit Antitrust Transport, European Commission, DG COMP
- Andrew Charlton, Aviation Advocacy & Executive Director, ATM Policy Institute
- Pieter Cornelisse, VP Mainport Strategy, KLM Royal Dutch Airlines
- Rafael Echevarne, CEO of Sangster International Airport, Jamaica
- Silvia Gehrler, Regional Director, European and North Atlantic Office, ICAO
- Lubos Hlinkovsky, Director Strategy, Czech ANSP
- Barry Humphreys, Consultant, BKH Aviation
- Julian Jäger, CEO, Vienna International Airport
- Oliver Lackmann, Managing Director, TUIfly
- Peter Malanik, President, Austrian Aviation Association
- Sanaf Nadeem, Product Specialist Blockchain, SITA
- Walter Seib, CEO, HMSHost International
- Jay Sorensen, President, IdeaWorks
- Michael Tretheway, Chief Economist & Executive Vice President, InterVISTAS Consulting

Since 2012, the EAC has offered a unique meeting place for industry stakeholders, researchers and government officials from across Europe and around the world to discuss current issues in aviation relevant to aviation policy. It is the goal to discuss best practices and practical solutions to challenges the aviation industry is facing.
