

Preliminary program

In his lecture, Richard de Neufville will address the concept of multi-airport systems in metropolitan areas as well as the problems, dynamics and risks associated with it. In addition, he will discuss the planning of airports and multi-airport systems in a highly dynamic market environment. Richard de Neufville will apply his insights to the Dutch airport system.

There will be opportunities for discussion and questions.

13.30-14.00	Doors open. Reception with coffee and tea
14.00-14.05	Opening by Prof. Jaap de Wit
14.05-15.00	Lecture part 1 by Prof. Richard de Neufville
15.00-15.15	Coffee break
15.15-16.00	Lecture part II by Prof. Richard de Neufville
16.00-16.15	Coffee break
16.15-17.15	plenary discussion
17.15-18.00	Drinks (sponsored by Airneth)

Location:
Casa 400
James Wattstraat 75
Amsterdam